

JRE Government Conspiracies Script

These are the 25 Craziest Government/CIA Conspiracy Theories, ever shared on the Joe Rogan Experience.

From Exposed CIA Documents, Advanced Government Surveillance, Unexpected Family Ties within the Government, and even Secret Technology in Antarctica, these are the craziest government and CIA conspiracies ever explored on JRE.

This leads us to the first clip where Joe Rogan is confronted with government assassinations. Things get strange when exploring unexpected family ties within the government. This is a conversation from episode 2218 with Sam Tripoli.

#2218 - Hidden Intelligence Agencies

Up next, Joe Rogan is confronted with the different layers of intelligence agencies involved in assassinations. This is a conversation from episode 2218 with Sam Tripoli.

0:03 - 0:14

you know that David Ike stuff where you said they're all lizard people I don't think they're really lizard people I don't think they're really shape shifters but they do behave in a reptilian way like a corporation does like a psychopath

Here, Tripoli brings up the fact that there's something going on, saying that all these organizations are related in some way.

0:16 - 0:44

I don't know if they're actual reptilians dude but there is something going on that they are a group of people cuz they're all related which is very weird if you like oh you go back far enough they're all related like if you study Obama and Bush right you know we cuz I remember when bu when Obama was running I was like oh change it's going to be change hope and change and then you start studying like the bushes and the Obamas and and their their their first ancestor their common ancestor is a hinley dude

Not only are Obama and Bush related, they're actually 11th cousins. Just look at this article, which fact checked it and found out that their relation is actually real.

Ref:

<https://www.msn.com/en-us/news/politics/former-presidents-barack-obama-and-george-w-bush-have-more-in-common-than-we-thought/ar-BB1qCzuo>

But as Tripoli is about to explain, things get crazier when you realize who their common ancestor is.

like John hingley the guy who tried to kill 100% what yes their their common ancestor is a hinley and then when you realize that Hanley was related to Obama and Bush and related to the the just had dinner with the Hinkley the night before Reagan got shot and here's the craziest thing what yeah is that crazy you think okay I always thought hinley was a lone nut that was in infatuated with Jody Foster

But the fact that the Obamas had dinner with the Hinkleys isn't the only shocking part of the whole connection. Because unlike what Joe Rogan believes, Tripoli is about to present a theory that there was more to the shooting, and it's all connected.

1:15 - 1:30

no dude and he actually there's actually interviews dude where he said uh Uncle George told me to do it oh Jesus okay didn't they just let him out yeah and now he's doing like playing in coffee beans cuz he's put out an album or something

What's even weirder about Hinkley's release is that Reagan wasn't the only president he stalked. In fact, he had previously spent months stalking Jimmy Carter, according to new reports. As if that wasn't weird enough there might be even more of a connection than people think.

Ref: <https://www.nytimes.com/1981/04/12/us/investigators-think-hinckley-stalked-carter.html>

Listen to what Tripoli says next when Rogan asks what the deal was.

1:51 - 2:10

what was his deal was he he was like he MK Ultra yeah he was a little off he was like the one family member that was a little off little off the craziest thing about that thing that the hinley that shoots at Reagan he's the first one that can use the I'm mentally not uh capable of defending myself the me I'm too mentally ill

Next, Joe and Tripoli talk about the John Lennon assassination, and Tripoli finally explains how many layers there are to some of these attempts. Listen to what he says.

when it's meant to happen you don't get out of there there's layers upon layers upon layers it's that's why when you talk about any of these things that you know even like when you talk about the Trump assassination there's a lot of stuff I go that that's a little weird you know like that's a really weird situation right there because if you study these high impact events they're like it's like it's like it's kind of like that scene in John Wick do you know where John Wick like the hit goes out on him and he's in the plaza and now every assassin has a flip phone suddenly they're all on flip phones and it's like boom take out John that that's a high impact event

What Tripoli is talking about here is called “gang stalking”, a concept where some people believe they’re being stalked by a large group of highly coordinated people.

Ref: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Gang_stalking

And while this might be hard to prove, there are many layers of these intelligence agencies that people believe point to situations like this. Then, Jamie pulls up something insane.

4:15 - 4:21

document show CIA and FBI spied on John Lennon for fear of the interrupting the election in 72

But it doesn’t end there, because there’s even more layers to it, like the Malcolm X assassination.

5:03 - 5:29

if you study the Malcolm X assassination the guy the guy who is giv him mouth to mouth at the end is a New York police officer that was So Undercover that even like the New York police didn't know about it it was this crazy like secret group within the they didn't even go through like getting their Badges and anything like that they were like separated early and then infiltrated all these these organizations

Of course, the funniest part about when the government infiltrates these organizations is that sometimes they don’t even recognize each other. In fact, Tripoli mentions the fact these mixups happen, and says this.

5:29 - 5:57

like the guys who shot him were working with the FBI the guy who's given him CPR but you know this is my whole thing I always you know going back to the lizard people stuff at the beginning was like if if there wasn't this apex predator class like out there manipulating energy and manipulating people like how much chaos would be happening in the world you know there always seems to be like if you dig deeper okay there's an intelligence agent somewhere involved in that Another example of theories involving these intelligence agencies are crisis actors, like you can see in these photos that show supposed crisis actors at different natural disasters or playing the role of different people on the news. Rogan mentions the term the deep state, saying this.

Ref: <https://i.pinimg.com/564x/4e/57/e2/4e57e245277cee2782150216ef1d172f.jpg>

You know this whole term the Deep State people want to think of that as conspiracy theory okay you have elected officials elected officials have to get elected but the people that run intelligence agencies don't have to get elected and they have massive access to money and power and power and they don't want to leave that position

#1852 - Operation Highjump

Next up, Joe Rogan learns about Operation Highjump and the nazis involvement in the government. This is a conversation from episode 1852 with Sam Tripoli. It all starts with Tripoli talking about Klaus Schwab's dad.

0:02 - 0:21

yeah have you ever looked into klaus schwab's like dad no have you ever heard of new schwabenland new schwabenland you've never heard a new schwaben land no have you ever heard of operation high jump i knew i was going to love this podcast no dude operation high jump what does that mean

Check this out. Operation Highjump was established by Admiral Richard E. Byrd, one of the most infamous sources of conspiracy theories involving the government. This man was the source of many theories involving aliens and even Antarctica, and Tripoli explains how.

0:32 - 1:00

the us government's like something's going on with antarctica there's some activity up there we want to find out what's going on so they send this cat name admiral byrd up to investigate with a giant fleet like just a a fleet to go to go bank bro you know when was this i think this was in the uh when was eisenhower in was it the 50s yeah it was like right around like just uh either around world war ii or right after it

Tripoli is close here. The first Byrd expedition was between 1928 and 1930, but another one took place a little while afterward. Still, these expeditions were one of the weirdest examples of the government funding a discovery that it later decided to cover up. Check out what Sam says next.

He basically met with ufos nazi ufos what yes this is ufos the nazis the nazis had a like a flying saucer had made a deal basically working with internationals no it's the greatest story ever bro it's the greatest story nazis made a deal with the aliens yes holy [___] for technology and the deal was they were going to work together okay i know this sounds crazy

Check out this, which catalogs some of the old resources Byrd and supposedly connects Byrd to his "lost diary" which is claimed to contain references to these nazis and even the alien, UFO technology they employed.

Ref: <https://galacticanthropology.org/wp-content/uploads/2023/07/byrdmissingdiary.pdf>

But things get weirder, because Byrd's missing diary had plenty of other crazy things in it, according to Tripoli.

1:39 - 2:08

so basically the aliens go down and and klaus schwab's dad go down and meet with eisenhower it's gonna be like we could we could either do it one way or the other way we could do it nice or we can do it the wrong way and that's where they say eisenhower made a deal with these aliens that they could kidnap people and do experiments but they couldn't just do it anywhere they had they had specific places which were our national forest

Another theory that ties into this is that the aliens have something to do with America's cave system network.

Ref: <https://www.reddit.com/media?url=https%3A%2F%2Fi.redd.it%2Fhplb7hjtbyy81.jpg>

Check out this map that shows a heatmap of missing people, contrasted with a network of America's cave systems. Strange, right? Well, listen to what Tripoli says next.

2:44 - 3:05

which is all these people have mysteriously disappeared in force and they don't know we're not talking about the missing 4-1-1 like information no no no so missing 4-1-1 is a number of people that have been abducted yeah and it's all really weird because they all have like a lot of similar characteristics german-born like german background excuse me highly intelligent

But remember the connection to Klaus Schaub's father? It all goes back to that. Listen to this.

5:28 - 5:58

so the area and of antarctica they went to was new new schwabenland new schwabenlin do you think that's why he dresses with the space 100 so they're all in contact with the aliens i think well dude i mean it gets in the i see a lot of people think it's about power and money we think it's about it's spiritual war dude this is these people got all the money and all the power they got more than they could ever want i think they want complete control

But is that the real reason this is happening? Rogan and Tripoli discuss the real reason this world order might want complete control, and Sam says this.

i think it's done purposely i think they're they're evil i think i think they're they're at low low there's low frequency stuff going on and they've made deals with people and things and that's why things going on

#1459 - MK Ultra

Next up, Joe Rogan is educated on the secret history of MK Ultra, and how the government used this program. This is a conversation from episode 1459 with Tom O'Neill.

0:02 - 0:30

so you brought up the MK ULTRA yes K Ultra was a government program run by the Central Intelligence Agency originally started as something called Bluebird in 1948-49 morphed into artichoke and then in 1952 became MKULTRA it was a mind-control program a brainwashing program the CIA was trying to learn how to control people's behavior without their knowledge

The craziest part about MK Ultra is that it was undoubtedly real, while some people believe it's a false conspiracy theory. A few documents regarding MK Ultra are now declassified, like this one you see on-screen.

<https://upload.wikimedia.org/wikipedia/commons/4/4f/DeclassifiedMKULTRA.jpg>

O'Neill continues to reveal things much deeper.

0:30 - 1:04

now this is all came out and Senate and congressional hearings in the 70s it was exposed but nobody knew about it until 1974 when Seymour Hersh the New York Times reporter reported on the front page of the paper so their main objective was to commit or to create what they called hypno program assassins people who would kill on command popularly known as Manchurian candidates after a book that was written 1962 and later became a movie and then a movie again

This doesn't do the horrifying state of the MK Ultra experiments justice, though. The MK Ultra experiments employed lengthy and extreme use of hypnosis and drugs along with other terrifying methods in order to turn patients into killers and even worse, with the singular goal of using these agents to serve the government. There is even a conspiracy theory that the famous serial killer, Charles Manson, was a test subject. Listen to what O'Neill tells Rogan about this.

the people would be through drugs and hypnotism the objective was to get people to go and commit an act of murder against their moral code and have no memory of their programming and be amnesiac even of the act after the fact often that was just one that was a main goal but they were also trying to create couriers people you know military people that they could implant messages send them you know across dangerous areas weather or at that time it was the Vietnam War and deliver messages and then have them wiped from their memory in case they were captured

The CIA actually didn't do this with the explicit approval of many government officials. The CIA admitted they did it, but refused to say exactly why they did it. As O'Neill mentions, it was all exposed in the 1970s but we still don't know the entire truth today.

they had all kinds of objectives so Roger Smith was supervising Manson when he became exactly where he was able to do exactly what the MKULTRA program have been trying to create and do for at that point about 15 17 years when it was all exposed in the 70s and there were these hearings first the Rockefeller Commission hearings and the church hearings and then finally senators Ted Kennedy and Daniel Nu

Take a look at this. These hearings were televised, but shockingly nothing ever came of it.

Ref:

https://i0.wp.com/impiousdigest.com/wp-content/uploads/2015/02/mkultra_hearing-77.png?resize=947%2C620

Instead, much of the evidence had already been destroyed, and the people who did know refused to talk.

2:19 - 2:50

no one would say exactly what they did all the records have been destroyed when the two people who ran it Richard Helms who had become the director of the CIA in the 60s and dr. Sidney Gottlieb who was kind of the mad scientist who had supervised Dahl that all that they had safe houses in San Francisco New York Los Angeles where they would experiment on people that were lured and into these apartments and houses that were either look like brothels or hippie communes or whatever

This alone should be enough of a red flag. MK Ultra was another case of government overreach, where the individuals behind it were never held accountable. Individuals such as some of the most famous intellectuals and scientists at the time.

3:05 - 3:30

jolly Wes Lewis Jay West who was when when the hearings occurred in the 70s identified as a top MKULTRA researcher he was an academic come out of the military had been at the oklahoma university university of oklahoma sorry and then UCLA running the psychiatric divisions he denied ever being involved in MKULTRA

You might think there's a chance that he actually wasn't involved in MK Ultra, but there's more to it than that. As O'Neill explains, it all ties back into the government, even this scientist's involvement.

3:41 - 4:10

I learned that West had been at the same place that Manson was in the Haight in the summer that Manson became exactly what the CIA was trying to create and I knew actually I had interviewed West about seven years before for our story I did about celebrity stalkers the people who were obsessed with stars and then only to kill them or try to kill them and he was an expert in violence hypnotism brainwashing and he was a chair of the psychiatry department at UCLA at that point

Sound familiar? The research that this scientist worked on during his time at UCLA almost perfectly matches the studies done by the MK Ultra experiments. While that alone is enough to make West a person of suspect, there's far more to the story than that. Just listen to what O'Neill says next.

he was dead when his name came up in the Manson's story and there wasn't a lot of I mean I guess there was a lot of Google then or a little bit but when I did a little research I found out that there have been these allegations that he'd been involved in MKULTRA he always denied it he was never processed had never even investigated he went to his grave threatening to sue anybody that said he would have anything to do with this kind of a program

Those aren't the actions of an innocent man, and O'Neill goes on to say that he actually got access to the UCLA files of West after much work. And it was at that point that he actually found something incriminating within those files.

4:52 - 5:28

and it was intuition gut I just thought there might be something there and sure enough I eventually found it it was correspondence between jolly Wes and Sidney Gottlieb the doctor that ran MKULTRA beginning in 1953 about Kentucky inductive experiments on people without their knowledge to get them to have amnesia --ks amnesia of the acts after they were programmed and everything that he had been accused of and denied he did not only did he do it he created the blueprint for the whole program with Godley

At one point during the MK Ultra experiments, he and another researcher were responsible for administering LSD to an elephant in such a high dose that it killed the elephant.

Joe then related MK Ultra to another Top secret CIA program called Operation Midnight Climax. Where men were led to brothels and would be dosed with LSD.

6:02 - 6:44

they lured these John's into these brothels and then dosed them up with LSD and studied them yeah George hunter white was the head CIA guy he would sit behind a two-way or one-way mirror and watch them that the jobs would be dosed with LSD they tried aerosols or just drinks different things and then they would study their behaviors aerosols yeah aerosol sprays really yeah but that would get the prostitutes to them no no the prostitutes to get them in there and then they'd go to the bathroom or something yeah again the problem is the records are so scant because Helm's order Gottlieb to destroy all the record in 1973 when the two men left the agency

Of course, many conspiracy theorists believe these experiments were largely successful, and some even believe that they are still using these techniques today.

5:52 - 5:54

they did a lot of crazy back then

#1759 - JFK Cover-Up

In this next clip, Joe Rogan and Oliver Stone discuss the JFK assassination cover-up, and how the government hid their involvement. This is a conversation from episode 1759 with Oliver Stone.

0:13 - 0:38

well it's a thing that a conspiracy theorist really looks to i don't use that word i think true seeker is much more okay well forget about that that word but someone who's interested in uncovering the truth about this assassination the the the type of person that has that mindset that's interested in uncovering the truth about any historical that's correct this is one of the best ones that's because there's what a historian does yes there's significant evidence and there's significant evidence that there is a conspiracy

Check this out. One of the most fascinating pieces of evidence is actually this picture right here, which shows the bullet supposedly used in the assassination. Of course, there's only one singular bullet here, but the government claimed that this was the only bullet used to both assassinate JFK and wound the passenger in the car, something that many theorists believe is faulty reasoning.

Ref: <https://cdn.mos.cms.futurecdn.net/iCYgqesYdjfUrEwyutLRWU.jpg>

But there's more to it than that, because as Rogan is about to point out, this was a widespread conspiracy.

0:47 - 1:19

so when you detail so brilliantly in this documentary all of the people that were involved in manipulating evidence whether it's autopsy photos whether it's the uh the evidence about the actual shots where they were fired from the impact like where the exit wounds was all these various people that were involved how many people knew what had actually happened because it seems like there was a a concentration of people that was not small Rogan then says that many people like to discredit conspiracy theorists by saying that a large number of people wouldn't be able to keep a secret like this, but the reasoning here is faulty. Listen to what he says next.

they had to it's a giant maze it's so confusing yes that no one would be believed if they were right one part think of it as a department of this uh departments of this somebody pops up and says i know this so he disappears in the maze it's another piece of information yeah there's been no attempt by government to follow up on this at all they dismissed they had the hscA in 1978 right that came about because of pressure and a lot of that was classified still and disappeared for a while we got it out

Many people believe that the government even uses the term conspiracy theorist to discredit any of these theories. In fact, it goes so far that there are even conspiracy theories that the government invented or popularized the term “conspiracy theory”, using it as an umbrella term or psyop to discredit people who disagreed with the government.

Ref: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Conspiracy_theory

Of course, this all ties back into the JFK assassination, and the physical evidence on the body itself.

2:19 - 2:34

The physical evidence of the the impact on the body is that's more important way more important and way more obvious that first of all the establishment of the magic bullet was one of the most preposterous things that the united states public has ever accepted

But that's not the only physical evidence against the government, as Stone is about to explain.

first of all the magic bullet there's no chain of custody on it the fbi lied and we proved it in the film yes you did because the times don't match right when it was given so the fbi down and out lied

But what was their reason for lying? According to Stone, there's a possibility they set up Oswald, and that he wasn't the one solely responsible. Listen to this.

3:22 - 3:45

he was in the corridor being yelled at and he said i need a lawyer i'm a passion yes yes you know the guy didn't behave like he was proud of what he had done no this is what he they said he was a communist an assassin who they had this background of visiting russia of course we found out they we found out the the community found out that it wasn't everything what didn't meet the eye it was a whole other story going on

What was the other story? Well, Oliver Stone lays out the theory that Oswald himself was at the very least associated with the CIA...a fact that begins to tie everything together.

3:50 - 3:58
